

Handwritten Arabic calligraphy on a stone slab, likely an epitaph or commemorative inscription. The text is arranged in a single line and is highly stylized, characteristic of classical Islamic script. The characters are deeply carved into the stone, creating a three-dimensional effect. The inscription is surrounded by a decorative border.

