PENDAHULUAN

Pelajaran2 ini di-sediakan dengan tujuan supaya sa-berapa banyak orang yang boleh akan dapat mengambil bahagian dengan chergas dalam Minggu Bahasa Kebangsaan kita yang pertama. Didalamnya terdapat penggunaan perkataan2 dan rangkaian2-kata yang boleh terdengar dalam perbualan2 sa-hari-hari di-kedai2, di-pasar2 dan di-pejabat2.

Dengan jalan ini di-harap sa-berapa banyak warganegara yang boleh akan mengetahui sa-kurang2-nya perkataan2 dan rangkaian2-kata sa-hari-hari yang paling sadikit untuk dapat menggunakan Bahasa Kebangsaan dalam masa di-adakan Minggu Bahasa Kebangsaan. Ia mungkin tidak dapat menggunakan Bahasa Kebangsaan pada sa-tiap waktu sa-panjang Minggu itu, tetapi kalau dia mempelajari hingga dapat beberapa pelajaran yang mudah ini ia akan mengetahui akan perkataan2 dan rangkaian2-kata yang chukup untuk mengambil bahagian yang chergas dalam kempen Minggu Bahasa Kebangsaan.

Pelajaran2 ini di-sediakan oleh Dewan Bahasa dan Kebudayaan Kebangsaan dan di-terbitkan dalam surat2-khabar dan siaran2-radio. Sekarang pelajaran2 ini sudah pulak di-kumpulkan dalam sa-buah buku kecil supaya senang warganegara dapat mengingatnya sa-mula dan menggunakan-nya dalam masa di-adakan Minggu Bahasa.

Tidak-lah memadai menerima Bahasa Kebangsaan pada alam fikiran saja. Kita mesti belajar menggunakan-nya selalu dengan sa-berapa yang kita boleh. Hanya dengan jalan ini kita boleh menjadi pandai dalam Bahasa Kebangsaan kita dan menolong mempertinggi dan memperkembangkan-nya. Penggunaan Bahasa Kebangsaan jangan-lah hendak-nya di-berhentikan sa-takat tamatnya Minggu Bahasa Kebangsaan tetapi hendak-lah di-teruskan sa-lepas berakhir kempen yang rasmi itu.

Hendak-lah kita ingat Bahasa Kebangsaan sekarang bukan kepunyaan sa-satu kaum. Ia-nya kepunyaan kita sakalian dan kita sakalian boleh dan akan menolong memajukan Bahasa Kebangsaan. Hanya dengan menggunakan-nya dengan lebih selalu lagi akan dapat kita jamin bahasa Melayu bukan lagi bahasa kepunyaan orang² Melayu sahaja tetapi sudah menjadi bahasa kepunyaan orang² Malaya. Ia-nya sudah pun menjadi bahasa kebangsaan 90 juta orang Indonesia dan akan menjadi juga bahasa kesatuan 10 juta orang² Malaysia.

Penerimaan bahasa Melayu si-bagai Bahasa Kebangsaan dari segi apa pun tidak bertentangan dengan pengkajian dan perkembangan bahasa ibu berbagai-bagai kaum di-Malaysia. Pengkajian dan kemajuan bahasa² lain daripada bahasa Melayu boleh menjadi satu sumber yang berharga bagi kekuatan Bahasa Kebangsaan kita, kerana menerusi bahasa² lain ini Bahasa Kebangsaan kita dapat di-perkayakan dengan fikiran² dan perkataan² baru.

FOREWORD

These lessons are designed to enable as many people as possible to participate actively in our first National Language Week. They involve the use of words and phrases likely to occur in the course of our daily life—conversations in shops, markets and in the office.

In this way it is hoped that as many citizens as possible will know at least a minimum of everyday words and phrases to be able to use the National Language during the course of the National Language Week. He may not be able to use the National Language on all occasions throughout the Week, but if he masters these few simple lessons he would have enough command of vocabulary and phrases to play an active part in the National Language Week campaign.

These lessons were prepared by the Dewan Bahasa dan Kebudayaan Kebangsaan. They have been published in the newspapers and broadcast over the radio. They are now brought together in handy booklet form so that the citizen can refresh his memory and refer to them in the course of the Language Week.

It is not enough to accept the National Language in theory. We must learn to use it as often as we can. Only in this way can we become proficient in our National Language and help in its growth and development. The use of the National Language should not end with the National Language Week but should be continued after the official campaign is over.

Let us remember that the National Language does not now belong to any one community. It belongs to all of us and all of us can and will contribute to the growth of the National Language. Only by using it more often can we ensure that Malay ceases to be the language of the Malays and becomes the language of Malayans. It is already the national language of 90 million Indonesians and it will also be the common language of the 10 million people of Malaysia.

The acceptance of Malay as the National Language does not in anyway conflict with the study and development of the mother tongues of the various communities in Malaysia. The study and growth of languages other than Malay can be a valuable source of strength to our National Language, for through these other languages our National Language can be enriched with new ideas and new words.

S. RAJARATNAM,
Minister for Culture.

IKAN FISH

- Pembeli: Selamat pagi. Hari ini awak menjual ikan apa?
- Buyer: Good morning. What fish are you selling to-day?
- Penjual Ikan: Ikan, ketam dan udang.
- Fishmonger: Fish, crabs and prawns.
- Pembeli: Udang-nya masch segar?
- Buyer: Are they fresh prawns?
- Penjual Ikan: Baru di-tangkap suboh pagi ini. Masch chukup segar.
- Fishmonger: We caught them early this morning. They are fresh.
- Pembeli: Saya hendak ikan bawal.
- Buyer: I would like some pomfret.
- Penjual Ikan: Berapa kati-kah awak mahu?
- Fishmonger: How many katties do you want?
- Pembeli: Dua kati.
- Buyer: Two katties.
- Penjual Ikan: Harga-nya dua ringgit tiga puluh sen.
- Fishmonger: That will be $2.30.
- Pembeli: Kenapa bagitu mahal?
- Buyer: Why is it so costly?

- Penjual Ikan: Sebab susah menangkap-nya. Sekarang hampir tiap2 hari hujan. Kerana itu kapal kami tak dapat pergi jauh ke-laut. Ikan-nya sadikit. Jadi, harga-nya pun naik.
- Fishmonger: Because it is difficult to catch. It is raining almost every day and our boats could not go far out into the sea. Fish are scarce and prices are naturally higher.
- Pembeli: Udang pun mahal harga-nya?
- Buyer: Are your prawns also expensive?
- Penjual Ikan: Harga-nya seperti biasa, delapan puluh sen sa-kati.

- Fishmonger: Here they are. Are you taking the fish too?
- Pembeli: Saya ta'mampu-lah. Terlalu mahal. Sa-kira-nya harga-nya di-kurangkan sedikit, barangkali saya jadi membeli-nya.
- Buyer: I cannot afford it. Too costly. If you reduce the price a little I may take them.
- Penjual Ikan: Berapa-kah awak tawar?
- Fishmonger: How much do you offer?
- Pembeli: Dua ringgit.
- Buyer: $2.

- Penjual Ikan: Baik-lah, bolch ambil barang itu. Awak hendak ketam?
- Fishmonger: All right, you can take them. Would you like some crabs?
- Pembeli: Tidak, hari ini ta'mahu. Lain kali sahaja-lah. Saya sudah terlalu banyak membeli barang-barang.
- Buyer: No, not to-day. I have bought far too many things.
- Penjual Ikan: Terima kaseh, dan harap datang lagi.
- Fishmonger: Thank you and please come again.

ALAT2 PELAJARAN EDUCATIONAL SUPPLIES

Pada suatu hari Ali, Ah Lum dan Nathan mengunjungi sa-buah kedai buku di-Bras Basah Road.

One day Ali, Ah Lum and Nathan visited a bookshop at Bras Basah Road.

Pemilek kedai bertanya kepada mereka apa yang hendak mereka beli.

The shopowner asked them what they wanted to buy.

Ali menjawab: "Saya hendak beberapa buah buku bahasa asing, seperti Perancis, Latin dan Spanyol".

Ali replied "I want some foreign-language books, like French, Latin and Spanish".

"Ya, saya ada banyak buku² bahasa asing di atas rak yang atas. Tuan boleh memilih mana yang tuan suka", kata pemilek kedai itu.

"Yes, I have a lot of foreign-language books on the top shelf. You may select whichever ones you want", said the shopowner.

Ah Lum berkata ia hendak membeli beberapa buah buku tata-bahasa.

Ah Lum said that he wanted to buy some books on grammar.

Dan Nathan pula berkata ia mahu sa-dozen buku² tulis, sa-batang pensil dan sa-botol da'wat.

And Nathan said he wanted a dozen exercise books, a pencil and a bottle of ink.

Ali dan Ah Lum pun memilih buku² yang di-kahendaki, sedangkan pemilek kedai itu mengambil barang² yang di-kahendaki oleh Nathan.

Ali and Ah Lum then selected the books they wanted while the shopowner fetched the things that Nathan wanted.

Sa-telah mereka membeli apa2 yang di-kahendaki, maka mereka pun berpisah dan pulang ka-rumah masing2.

After making their purchases, they parted company and returned to their respective homes.
